

I listen to K-Love everyday on my radio in the car and via internet @ work. If there is no K-Love then there is no radio as far as I am concerned as there is nothing else on the air worth listening to. So many people listen to this station as a source of inspiration to help them make it through the day. Please make it possible to keep K-Love on the air. Thank you so much.